

2017 Forecast: Chinese Companies to Fuel Hiring Growth in Hong Kong

An increasing number of China-based companies are utilising their Hong Kong businesses as springboards for international growth. Their rapid expansion will intensify the competition for top talent in 2017.

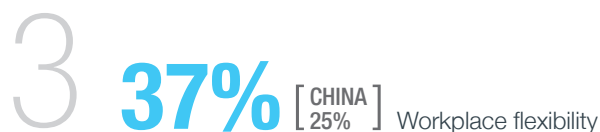

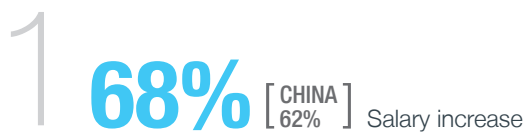

Slower pace of hiring in 2017

Contracting on the rise

Comparison between Hong Kong and China employers on talent attraction and retention strategies

For media enquiries:

Germaine Lim, PR specialist, APAC
t +65 9710 1760 e germainelim@michaelpage.com.sg

Get connected. Stay ahead.

Source: The Michael Page 2017 Asia Salary and Employment Outlook will be launched next February and will cover market insights, recruitment trends in Asia. This includes Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, Thailand, Hong Kong, China and Taiwan. The report incorporates the views of over 3,400 employer survey respondents in addition to feedback from corporate human resources directors across different industries in Asia and business experts' insights from the Michael Page leadership team.