

Cross Cultural Challenges for Sourcing & Supply Chain Management

Michael Page International invites you to attend a lunch and learn workshop with special guest speaker Andy Clark. This workshop will provide an insight into cross cultural communications as well as a range of techniques that can be used to assist supply chain and sourcing professionals in their daily communications.

Topics discussed:

- Hofstede's 5D model as it relates to China and the West
- Communication issues within the sourcing field
- Key tools to allow the East and West to achieve mutual goals

Date: Friday 28 January, 2011

Time: 12:15pm – 2:00pm

Where: 8/F Langham Place,
555 Shanghai Street
Mongkok, Kowloon, Hong Kong

RSVP: By 11 January, 2011 to Janet Lee
T +852 2848 4708
E janetlee@michaelpage.com.hk

Guest Speaker – Andy Clark

Michael Page
ENGINEERING & SUPPLY CHAIN

Andy Clark

Lead trainer Andy Clark is the Training and Development Director of Clark Morgan Corporate Training. In 2008 and 2010 the firm won “China Training Firm of the Year” as well as Andy being awarded “Outstanding Trainer” from the HKMA in 2008. Originally from the UK, Andy has been working and training in Greater China for more than ten years, particularly for sourcing clients such as Li & Fung, Home Retail Group and Lowes Group.

Back to invite

Michael Page
ENGINEERING & SUPPLY CHAIN