

Style in the City

A complimentary seminar
with Image Consultant
Dr. Sonia Samtani.

Managing one of Hong Kong's most highly regarded image and lifestyle consulting companies, Dr. Sonia Samtani offers coaching for both individual and corporate clients through private consultations, mentoring, presentations, seminars and workshops!

Please join Page Personnel for a complimentary Style in the City seminar. Suitable office attire is important for business people as it helps to portray professionalism and make a lasting first impression. Studies have shown that people who wear formal business attire are seen by others to be successful individuals with higher-paid jobs than those who do not.

During the seminar, Dr. Sonia Samtani will lead you through fashion and style tips for individuals as well as providing professional advice on dressing for the office.
